

¡Important!

In Mexico it is not required Apostille, nor Legalization to the documents that accredits your studies that you studied in a foreign country.

The documents issued in a different language than to spanish should be translate it by a simple translation. (It is not required an official expert).

Any Public Educational Office can not refuse your process if you do not have some identification document as: Consular Certification, Migratory Document, Personal Identity Card and Certificate of Nationality, Report Card or Transcript.

What you can do if you do not have some document that accredits your Elementary School, Junior High or High School?

The administrative area of the school where you want to study will apply a diagnostic evaluation to place you in the appropriate grade.
